Dear Families,

I hope that you all had a lovely half term and managed to find some quality family time. This week has been busy as usual and the children have been impressing their teachers with their fantastic attitude to learning. It is clear that our children are building on the learning that they do in school by exploring independent research and completing homework – all of which expands their knowledge and skills. We recognize that having such encouraging and supportive families to work with in partnership, will secure our children’s success going forward. Thank you.

World Book Day

Next Thursday we will be celebrating World Book Day and are encouraging the children to come to school dressed as character from a book they have read in their class this year. The staff will share simple ideas with the children and again, we are focusing on recreating characters from books the children have actually read and enjoyed. To celebrate our love of reading we will all be taking part in fun activities throughout the day, including special assemblies, mystery story tellers and a draw-along with illustrators. We look forward to having fun together and celebrating books and stories even more than usual!

To support your child and have fun reading take a look at the link below – I love the tip about the bedtime routine!

Sports Personality of the week!

This week Sports Personality of the Week is Yusein (Purple)

Even though Yusein is fairly new to the school Mr. Samuel has been quite impressed with how he has managed to quickly pick up key gymnastics skills and vocabulary across this term. Yuesin is able to identify different ways of travelling, along with holding difficult balances while performing jumps safely onto a mat. Yuesin also had a turn on the climbing frame for the very first time this week and was able to overcome some little jitters at the start and was able to successfully climb up and down independently.

Impressive work Yusein, keep up the great work!

Earthquake donations

Before half term we set up a donation page on Parent Pay in response to the devastating earthquake in Turkey and Syria. Thank you to all our staff and families who have made donations, if you would like to make a donation, please access your Parent Pay account until Friday 3rd March.

Strike Action

I am sure that you will have heard that the largest Teaching Union have announced strike action over three further dates during this half term. What is important to know is that our staff are not taking action against our school or Trust but against the Secretary of State for Education. As yet I am not able to provide you with information about what it will mean for our school. However, as soon as I know, I will advise you. If your child's class is closed on a strike day, please take the opportunity to ensure that your child is up to date with their homework on Google Classroom. If your child's class is not closed your child is expected to be in school. Please keep an eye on your text messages and emails.

Have a good weekend.

Yours sincerely,

A Goldwater
